

SQUAD ROUNDING INTO FINE SHAPE

Varsity Men Preparing for Federal Games in Washington Saturday Evening.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTEVILLE, VA., February 9.—Even the five inches of snow that fell Sunday afternoon did not dampen the ardor of the Virginia track squad, as a large number was out yesterday and today. Never before in the history of athletics at Virginia has so much interest been shown in this branch of sport. There are fully fifty men training for the different events, the number even rivaling the big football squad of last fall.

Several fast trials were held this afternoon, principally in the 440. Especially notable was the performance of Douglas, one of the pitchers on the varsity baseball team, who ran a very fast quarter. The time was not given, but it was known to have been extremely fast. Douglas is a big, strong fellow, and is not near at his best yet. He only reported for work the middle of last week. Douglas is a cousin of Dr. J. Beverly Pollard, the former football and baseball star, and coach for last year's baseball team.

Another baseball man who showed up well in this event (quarter mile) was Cabaniss, catcher and outfielder, who is entered in the sprints and quarter at the George Washington meet Saturday night. His owners, Messrs. J. O. Kellam and W. Phillips, will put him into the hands of a trainer for the summer races.

He is also entered in the quarter, and should make a good showing. This event also is of small stature, and is well put up. In build he very much resembles Mingo and Hough, the two new sprinters at the University of Pennsylvania, whom "Mike" Murphy looks upon to fill the Carlinis slot in the sprints. Cabaniss headed the batting list in baseball last season, and was extremely fast on the bases.

Gooch, the former Richmond College boy, and sub back on the varsity football team last year, is also developing rapidly.

Huns Line Quarter.
King, the Fall River boy, a new man at the game until this year, and who is the extra man on the relay team, ran a fine quarter to-day, and although the time was not given out, it is known that it was from two to three seconds faster than he made in his trials two weeks ago.

Percy Arby, the basketball captain, who is entered in the sprints Saturday night, also ran a fast quarter to-day. He is a former member of the Episcopal High School, both took trials to-day; also Burke, formerly of the Washington School for Boys.

Eager, the recent find in the half-mile, ran a fast trial. He is a third-year man, and reported last year for basketball work.

He is a tall, rangy runner, built on the order of Charles Kilpatrick, the world's record-holder for the half-mile, formerly of Union College, and faster than he was when he ran the mile and a half in the Episcopal High School, both took trials to-day; also Burke, formerly of the Washington School for Boys.

Rest for Martin.
Trainer Lannigan has laid off Martin for the past three or four days, in order to give him a rest. He is a rest, and he was trained especially to go after the world's record in the 100-yard hurdles, and was right on edge. He has been worked but lightly the past week, for fear of his going stale.

Apologies of Martin's record, the writer was told by Lannigan two weeks ago that Martin would positively do twelve seconds in the 100-yard hurdles at the John Hopkins meet.

He is a fine athlete and very versatile, being able to do really a fine performance in a number of different events. He is unquestionably Olympic material in either high or broad jumping, or in either the 120 or 220-yard hurdles, although, if sent to take the next Olympic trials for the Athens meet, Lannigan will probably specialize him in the hurdles and out him out of all other events.

Randolph, probably as fine a hurdler as ever topped the timbers, is greatly handicapped by lack of time to train. This is his last year in the medical school and he is anxious to carry off his sheepskin. Some idea of his ability may be gathered from the fact that he equaled the world's record in the 100-yard hurdles at the recent Hopkins meet.

NEW YORK, February 9.—The managers of Tom Longboat, the Indian runner, announced to-day that they had decided to accept the offer of a $7,500 purse for a fifteen mile race in Buffalo on February 25 with Alfred Shrubb, the Englishman, who was defeated by the Indian in Madison Square Garden last Friday night. Shrubb's friends are sanguine that he can defeat Longboat at the shorter distance.

Trial With Boston.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., February 9.—Much interest attaches to the report that Len Stanley, the Washington southpaw, is to get a trial in Boston. Stanley is recalled by Lynchburg fans because he was the first runner to win the first game here for the Norfolk team after the reorganization of the league in 1906. Norfolk at that time had won about ten straight games, but the shoe-makers beat Norfolk with Stanley in the box by the score of 7 to 4. It was his first defeat as well as his team's. That year Stanley won twenty out of twenty-nine games pitched.

M'CONNELL WINS VAULT.
In Y. M. C. A. Contest He Goes Over Fence at Five and a Half Feet.

McConnell won the fence vault for the Hustlers against the Invincibles at the Young Men's Christian Association gymnasium last night in the weekly athletic contest between these two teams, the winning height being 5 feet 6 inches. Y. M. C. A. also won the Hustlers, took second place, with a mark of 5 feet 5 inches. Dodd and Stulting, of the Hustlers, and Guy and Bell, of the Invincibles, tied for third place at 5 feet 2 inches.

The Leopards took the Tigers into camp in the Indoor Baseball League game by the score of 7 to 4. The players of the Leopards were: Henderson, the battery of the winning nine, was the feature of the contest. Henderson nabbing all stray fouls in easy fashion, the Tigers were credited with four hits to three for the Leopards, but costly and repeated errors proved to be their downfall.

In the Junior games the Nationals won the basketball game, 19 to 17, and also got away with the dumbbell relay race.

LYNCHING IS IMMINENT.
People Aroused Over Attempted Crime of

RAINFORD, GA., February 9.—Excitement is intense here to-night over the attempt of the Jones, a negro, to criminally assault a white woman. The woman, Miss Spooner, in the western part of the county this morning. The negro was captured by a posse and placed in the town jail. The woman, Miss Spooner, was identified as having attempted to assault the daughter of another white man in the same community several months ago.

And is dissatisfied. They are all pleased. You'll be pleased if you buy a piano here.

PARR'S MEASURE TAKEN BY DRAKE

Asheville Man Wins Two Falls Out of Three in Fast Match.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ASHEVILLE, N. C., February 9.—John Drake, of Asheville, defeated Jim Parr, the former English champion, here last night in a catch-as-catch-can, best two out of three, wrestling match. The first fall was won by Parr in eight minutes, the second by Drake in twenty-eight minutes, and the final and deciding fall by the local boy again in twenty-eight minutes.

Greatest interest was displayed here in the match, Drake having defeated Parr two weeks ago in a handicap match and having shown great cleverness. A purse of $200 was up on last night's bout. 70 per cent. going to the winner and 30 to the loser.

Both wrestlers started off fast. Parr worked all of the tricks of the game and clearly had Drake's nerve. After eight minutes Parr was particularly clever with his legs. After some time the pace began to tell on the visitor, and Drake's staying qualities were fine. After twenty-eight minutes of the hardest kind of wrestling, Parr was again thrown by a leg and neck hold. This match meant a great deal to Drake, as the victory has made him rank with the big wrestlers of the day. He has accepted a challenge to meet American in Baltimore, and will leave for that city soon.

There were two good preliminaries last night. In the first, between Hipps and Tremble, both of Canton, each won a fall, and the match was declared a draw. In the second, two Asheville boys, Robertson and Bishop, mixed things, and as each secured a fall, a draw was the decision.

Fair for Danville.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., February 9.—At a mass-meeting of the citizens and members of the Commercial Association it was decided to hold a fair in Danville next fall, and a charter will be applied for in a few days. The minimum stock will be $2,000, and the maximum $10,000. A. W. Douthett was elected president and Colonel A. B. Carrington first vice-president.

Bookmakers Register a Killing on Ornosoma, 15 to 1, in Second Event.
TAMPA, FLA., February 9.—The weather was fine for the sixth day of the race meeting here. Track and attendance were good. Investigation of Ober's ride yesterday on Dear Marie was postponed until to-morrow. He was suspended pending investigation.

Bookmakers made a killing on the second race, Ornosoma being without support. She ran a much improved race. Belle Scott in the third race and Big Hand in the fifth were the only favorites to win this afternoon.

First race—three furlongs—Synth (6 to 5) first, Fernaught II (4 to 1) second, Keep Tying (8 to 5) third. Time, 1:38.

Second race—seven furlongs—Ornosoma (15 to 1) first, Morise (19 to 1) second, Eustacia (2 to 1) third. Time, 1:31 3-4.

Third race—one mile and one-sixth—Belle Scott (8 to 5) first, Water Cooler (3 to 1) second, Ora Sudduth (6 to 1) third. Time, 2:11 3-4.

Fourth race—five furlongs—Ray Thompson (7 to 1) first, Sally Preston (8 to 5) second, Chief Hayes (10 to 1) third. Time, 1:14 3-4.

Fifth race—six furlongs—Big Hand (4 to 1) first, Elder (2 to 1) second, Lucullus (2 to 1) third. Time, 1:20.

Sixth race—five and a half furlongs—Expect to See (7 to 1) first, Enlist (5 to 1) second, Carraugh (2 to 1) third. Time, 1:12.
